Tuesday Topics: If you have not joined us for one of these informative/educational/entertaining events then you have been missing out! Offered from September to June and tailored to an Adult/Teen audience. We are very proud of our lineup in 2019. (6:30 – 7:30pm) Come in or go on our website to see the complete list.

Tuesday, March 5th- Deirdre McMorrow with Paul Pender: Traditional Irish Fiddle and Song with a dose of Irish fun and laughter! Be sure to sign up for this one early as we are expecting a crowd and seating is limited by our space!

Tuesday, April 2nd -GHS Jazz

Combo: (6:30) Back by popular demand under the guidance of Amanda Richmond. Come support this talented group of musicians because "if you ain't got that swing, then you ain't got a thing!"

Authors on the Spot: Three Panels, Three Thursdays, Three Authors Each!

The first panel will be on March 28th starting at 6pm.

Guest authors on this night all write non-fiction.

Elinor Dewire is known for her lighthouse research having written 15 books on the subject. A member of the U.S. Lighthouse Society, she really knows her stuff! Martin Podskoch has done a variety of research in the local area, across the state and in the Adirondack Mountains. He recently published Connecticut 169 Club in 2018. Matthew Goldman (aka Constant Waterman) rounds out this panel. A veteran author of Connecticut travel and highlights as well as stories of wit and rhyme, Matt's Landmarks You Must See is a guide to Connecticut's hidden treasures you don't want to miss! Each book is filled with his original art as well. Please come and help us put these Authors on the Spot! Bring your questions about research, writing, storylines and getting published. For additional information or to sign up for a reminder call the day before the event, please call or visit the library.
